Bright on Presidio

Last year, Ellen and Jacques-Alban Callies opened Bright on Presidio, a showroom displaying the couple's curated selection of lighting by international ateliers. After living in Europe and Asia for years, the pair decided to set up shop in the States, and now they offer such standouts as Vittorio Bonacina's rattan Orbita suspensions (shown, priced from $1,850 to $2,250 depending on size and finish); the colorful "24" series by London-based Paola Petrobelli; architectural lighting by Occhio, of Munich; and exclusive table lamps created from ceramicist Christiane Perrochon's handmade vessels.
